

Bringing History to Life

Join us for these programs in 2019

American Indians, Then and Now - Stacey Halfmoon, Director of American Indian Relations, Ohio History Connection

Thursday, January 17, at 7pm - at William Street United Methodist Church

Underground Railroad Reader's Theatre - Presented by the DCHS Curriculum Support Committee
Wednesday, February 13, at 7pm - at William Street United Methodist Church

Fighting for Freedom: the United States Colored Troops in the Civil War - Anthony Gibbs, Local History Department Manager, Ohio History Connection and Traveling Artist
Thursday, March 21, at 7pm at William Street United Methodist Church

Curry School, 1890s private school in Delaware
Thursday, April 18, at 7pm - the Barn at Stratford

World Wide Games, history of this well-known Delaware company selling wooden games
Steve Schmidt, Volunteer researcher, Delaware County Historical Society
Thursday, May 16, at 7pm - the Barn at Stratford

Frederick Douglass - Reenacted by Tracey Sumner Sr.
Thursday, June 20 at 7pm at William Street United Methodist Church

Boomerang history - Delaware Connection and Demonstration by Chet Snouffer
Sunday, July 14, at 6pm on the Meeker lawn at the Barn at Stratford

Tour of Stratford Community and Church
Sunday, August 11, from 2 to 4pm. Tour will begin at the Barn at Stratford; shuttle planned

Little Brown Jug Memories - organized by the LBJ Oral History Group
Thursday, September 12, at 7 pm at the Barn at Stratford (date & location tentative)

Oak Grove Cemetery Walk - reenactors will portray notable county residents who were buried there
Sunday, October 13, at 1pm

Delaware County Historical Society Annual Meeting - Steve and Kerry Frazier reenacting Nathan Carpenter and Polly Cook, Delaware County residents who were in the Battle of Bunker Hill of the Revolutionary War
Wednesday, November 13, at 7pm at the Barn at Stratford

Nash House Holiday Open House
Sunday, December 1

Located at 157 East William Street, this beautiful 1878 Victorian house will be festively decorated for the holiday season. Refreshments will be served.

Programs are free unless otherwise noted.

So we can provide adequate seating, pre registration on Event Bright is strongly suggested.

The Barn at Stratford is at 2690 Stratford Road, Delaware William Street United Methodist Church is at 28 W. William St. in Delaware

*Limited seating, tickets available on Event Bright. Members—$10/Non Members—$20. Additional $5 charge at door

info@DelawareOhioHistory.org DelawareOhioHistory.org 740-369-3831