

Artifact Carts: Delaware Then and Now

1st, 2nd, and 3rd Graders

The Artifact Cart brings pieces of history into the classroom

Volunteers come to your school with a cart filled with artifacts from different time periods. These artifacts were used in homes and on farms. Students are given a chance to view the artifacts and then, based on what they observed, share their ideas about how the items might have been used. Our volunteers will explain any misconceptions and clarify the purpose of each object.
